

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Because they use the public airwaves, they have an obligation to provide equal and unbiased reporting, not to serve as a propaganda machine for their owners.

You, as the FCC, have the power and responsibility to protect the American public from propaganda. I hope you will act quickly and with appropriate authority.